1. Why do you think the Lord (Jehovah) gives so many detailed instructions for how the Israelites are to construct the tabernacle, all the articles in it, and the priests garments? Notice the purpose/reason the Lord gives for the different things where mentioned, then draw your conclusion.
2. What do you learn about the Lord from today's reading? Talk about what that means for your life.

1. "Consecrate" means to "set apart," or "make holy." This section of reading (Exodus 29-31) is about consecrating things. From what you read in the text, how big is this issue of consecration to God? Also talk about how consecration applies to us today. (Consider Romans 12:1, 2)
2. Put yourself in Aaron's sandals as high priest. What would daily life be like for you?
3. What do you learn about the Lord from today's reading? Talk about what that means for your life.

1. You might be thinking after this reading, "Why do I need to read about all the details of the construction of the tabernacle? What does any of this have to do with me?" Hebrews 8:1-6 and 9:1-15 will be helpful. What should we learn from the fact that God gave so much detail for constructing the tabernacle? What stands out to you?
